Circular on giving punishment inside party

Siraj Sikder

The Proletarian Party of East Bengal produced and published the original Bengali document in Second Week August 1973

The Communist Party Marxist-Leninist-Maoist Bangladesh translated the document in English and published online via www.sarbaharapath.com on 23 November 2014

If any one of the following crimes is proved, the criminal can be given capital punishment. Sub-sector commanders will be able to implement this article in following way:

- Crime investigation, taking witness and evidence
- If possible, take permission from higher level
- In case criminal may flee, then no need permission from higher level, but as soon as possible it must be approved by higher level
- If the criminal does not flee but makes appeal to higher level by agreeing to stay in our custody (this article will not be applicable in case there is any possibility that the criminal's fleeing may inflict serious security problem, or there is no real situation to keep him/her in custody), do not give him/her capital punishment but send the case to higher level (by keeping the criminal in safe custody). In that case, decision of higher level shall be final.

Crimes:

- 1) To steal money and valuable assets of party
- 2) To do dacoity with party's arms
- 3) To rape and abduct women
